THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A HAPPY CLIENT

"Pete and his brother Mark helped us locate and buy our first home in Encinitas and we couldn't have been happier with our experience with them. Not only are they personable, relatable and fun to work with, they were also complete professionals from start to finish. They proactively provided us with listings, actively listened to our feedback and adjusted the search, were incredibly responsive throughout the process and were valuable assets to have in our corner during the negotiating process. We loved how they would offer their opinions and insight when asked, but were neither pushy nor overly vocal with their own thoughts. We really felt like they took the time to understand our wants and needs and were committed to getting us in the right home for us. We also found them to have valuable contacts throughout every step of the lending/inspection/buying/moving-in process and appreciated all of their trusted recommendations in those fields. They provided so many wonderful personal touches and we hope to be friends and clients of there's for years to come. Thank you, Pete and Mark!"
